MINES AND MINING

85 Company Installs Drills
The first diamond drills ever brought to the local mining fields were received this week by the 85 mining company. There are two Smith and Travers drills in the complete outfit and they will be used in testing the company's ground.

The deepest development work in the Virginia district is about 700 feet from the outcropping head and the field has been greatly increased by such work as the diamond drill can do, to explore the vast area of unknown ground. One of the new drills will be installed on the 400-foot level of the 85 mine and deep prospecting done. The other drill will be used to explore property at the discretion of the management.

The advent of the diamond drill into the local field is an enterprise of merit and will doubtless prove of much benefit to the district in general as regards unexplored ground.

The new electric hoist recently received by the 85 mining company has been set up and will no doubt be in operation within three weeks' time.

Ore shipments from the 85 mine are being made from the platform built at Shakespere and regular trains are now being run that far over the new spur. The A. & N. M. work crews are busy on the cuts at the Atwood and near the 85 ore bins.

J. C. Darcy of El Paso has accepted a position as accountant at the 85 mine offices. Mr. Wolfman being promoted to warehouse manager.

C. L. Sullivan is taking a few weeks' vacation awaiting the completion of proposed changes at the 85 mine camp, after which he will be employed by the company in a new capacity.

Lawrence Boyd, president of the Monto Rico Mining Company, is expected here today.

Curtis Alexander, a well known smelter and mine owner of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, spent several days here this week with F. V. Bush, going over the local mining camps. He left for El Paso Tuesday where he will locate indefinitely. Mr. Alexander will return to Lordsburg within a short time as he has found this one of the most interesting and promising camps in the United States or Mexico.

Activity at Last Chance
After a period of inactivity the El Centro Mining Company have begun to put life into Leidenfeld and the Last Chance Mining Camp. Lumber has been ordered for a new boarding house, which will be erected at once. Numerous other buildings are to be constructed at the camp before mining begins. This time is not expected to be far off. Mr. Wilcox, of the Last Chance camp, was in town Saturday purchasing supplies.

Wm. Davis this week erected a gallows frame on his property at Lee's Peak and has put a force of men at work getting the equipment in readiness for shaft sinking. The contracts for the work have not yet been opened.

Steins Mining Notes
John Moffit of El Paso has leased the Johnny Bull mine and will begin extensive operations within a short time.
The Southern Pacific is building a new ore platform at Steins. James Coll, of Gila Bend, Ariz., has made a rich strike at his mine seven miles north of Steins. Work has been under way for some time past and every indication has been favorable.

Jack Sands has developed a good ledge of copper ore on his property adjoining the Panama mine. An excellent new copper property is being developed in the Kimball district, four miles south of Steins. The claim was originally located by John C. Hayden and later taken over by Lordsburg interests. A shipment of sacked ore is soon to be made. Tunnel development and shaft sinking is being done at the present time.

APPOINTED DEPUTY GAME WARDEN
State Game Warden Trinidad C. DeBaca has appointed Felix V. Bush, editor of the Liberal, deputy game and fish warden for Lordsburg and vicinity. Copies of the new fish and game laws and all forms of licenses may be had at the Liberal office.

The rates for residents of New Mexico are: Big game, bird and fish, $2.00; Resident big game, $1.00; Resident Bird, $1.00; Resident General big game and bird, $1.50; Resident Fishing, $1.00. Permits must be secured to transport any game in the State of New Mexico.

Dove season opens August 16th and closes September 30th.

LOCAL & PERSONAL

Rev. J. A. Ervein of Attica, Kansas, has accepted a call from the local Christian church and will arrive here as soon as his wife's health will permit.

Olney and McAllister's for chocolate and vanilla caramels, 10c.

Dr. C. E. Lukens, superintendent of the Children's Home Society at Albuquerque, was here Saturday in the interests of his good cause.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade B. Smith returned Sunday from their postponed honeymoon to the big California expositions. They report having a good time and advise "honeymoonists" to take the same trip.

Chocolate Brazil nuts, milk chocolates and caramels chocolate dipped. Pound box, $1; half pound, 50c. Olney and McAllister's.

Miss Florence Bailey is a new operator for the Lordsburg Telephone Company. If the boys don't stop using the Liberal phone we are going to have to take it out. But we all like to hear Florence's voice nevertheless.

A new sidewalk has been built past Dr. Egon's lots, the Scott garage and the Eagle Drug Mercantile Company's corral. Now for some hard rains to see how it walks.

Several Arizona saloon men are in town contemplating opening up new drink emporiums. Evidently eight liquor houses are not enough for Lordsburg and someone has an idea of going broke. Liquor men have bids up on practically every business house in Lordsburg. It seems that we have enough saloons in town at present without any more and that some effort should be made to stop the influx of Lordsburg is to maintain its respectability.

Two saloons are contemplated for the Virginia district as soon as the railroad gang leaves the camp, it being against the law to establish a saloon there during railway construction. It is understood that both places will be at Shakespere. An Arizona and a New Mexico man are behind each of the projects.

Thomas A. Lister, Jr., is here from San Francisco visiting his parents.

M. P. Farrer, the tailor, has a few uncalled for pants on hand and will dispose of same at 50 per cent off. No charge for alterations. See Farrer before you buy.

Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Crocker returned Saturday afternoon from a vacation trip to the Pacific coast for the benefit of Mrs. Crocker's health. The Liberal is pleased to report that she is very much improved, which is welcome news to her many friends. Everyone was glad to see Doctor back also.

Rev. Smith of El Paso occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Mrs. M. W. McGrath, accompanied by her grandchildren, Misses Dewey, Ida and Mary and Master Walter, left Sunday afternoon for a vacation trip to the Pacific coast, during which time they will take in the two big expositions.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heather left Sunday evening for Los Angeles, Calif., where Mrs. Heather will undergo a delicate operation.

A largely attended song service, with an interesting sermon by Rev. J. A. Land, was held at the Baptist church Sunday evening. Several excellent vocal and instrumental selections were rendered, besides very good choir renditions.

Next Friday night at the R. of P. Hall the Hess Hill orchestra of Duncan will give a big dance. Preparations are now being made for it and every indication points to the dance being one of the largest ever held here. The Hill orchestra cannot be excelled in the Southwest and people will be here for miles around.

Miss Hazel Clouse, of Duncan, was here several days last week, returning to her home Saturday.

Mrs. D. H. Wright of Animas was a Lordsburg visitor several days last week. Mrs. Wright is moving to her ranch ten miles south of Animas station.

Perry B. Howe of San Simon has opened a shoe repair shop in the building adjoining Lee Wright's blacksmith shop north of the S. P. tracks. Mr. Howe is one of the best shoemakers in the Southwest.

Sunday afternoon the local Woodmen of the World held a monument unveiling at the Owyabi Cemetery in honor of Herman Klue one of their deceased members. Floyd Jones was the orator of the day. The order marched en masse to the cemetery accompanied by the Lordsburg Band, and appropriate services were held. Following the unveiling the band gave a short concert up town and did remarkably well, showing much improvement.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stamps, August 10, twin daughters. A "two-cent" Stamp, the event might be called. Mother and daughters are doing nicely and the proud daddy is all smiles.

DEATH OF ALBERT SCHRAMM

Early Wednesday morning, at his home in this city, occurred the death of Albert Schramm one of Lordsburg's progressive merchants and for over ten years foreman of the Western Liberal. His death was caused from a hemorrhage of the stomach brought about by an unaccountable poisoning. Mr. Schramm became ill Tuesday morning and every effort was used to save his life but the poisoning had made its way beyond remedy. He died very peacefully. Interment was made Thursday morning, hundreds of people paying their last respects.

Albert Schramm was born in Tucson, Ariz., forty-five years ago and served his apprenticeship on several of the Tucson newspapers. Later he became engaged in mining both in Arizona and old Mexico and was once employed by a large mercantile company. He went to work on the Western Liberal about twelve years ago and assisted Don H. Kedzie in the local postoffice. After serving here six years he returned to Tucson but later came back to Lordsburg and was foreman of the Liberal until two months ago when, together with Francisco Barela, he purchased Surprise Grocery store. Albert Schramm was a faithful employee and a good business man. He was well liked by all who knew him and will be greatly missed.

Deceased is survived by a wife and son and daughter in Los Angeles. He is the owner of real estate in Lordsburg and vicinity and half owner in the Surprise Grocery store. "Thirty" has now been called for all of the old Western Liberal force and Albert Schramm has answered the call.

Married in Yuma

Miss Margaret Riddle and E. C. Sexton were married in Yuma, Arizona, Monday, according to telegraphic advice received here by R. H. Gwynn. Miss Riddle is a sister to Mrs. K. B. Gwynn and is one of the most popular and well liked young ladies in Lordsburg. The groom was night ticket agent here some time ago and made a wide circle of friends here. He is an industrious young man and is to be complimented on his capture of one of the Southwest's most charming ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Sexton will make their home in Yuma after returning from their honeymoon. Several of the local boys threatened suicide when news of the marriage was received here. The Liberal joins the many friends of the newlyweds in wishing them a happy married life.

"The Only Son" Tonight

A five reel Paramount feature will be shown at the Star theater tonight (Friday). The production is "The Only Son" with Thomas W. Ross, the favorite juvenile star in the title role. The plot deals with the social life of New York in which both a mother and her son succumb to the wiles of the city. A murder is committed and the family is broken asunder. The son goes West where he is financially successful and all are reunited later. The plot is a romance within a romance, and each more gripping than the other. The picture is said to be one of the best of the Paramount productions and equal in every respect to the excellent show of last Friday evening.

Saturday will be comedy night and on Sunday a special Los Angeles feature will hold the screen. "The Master Key" serial began Tuesday night and will be shown every Tuesday for fifteen weeks. A large crowd turned out to see the first films.

Manager D. W. Briel is putting on the best pictures ever shown in Lordsburg and should be rewarded with packed houses.

MILITIA TAKES CAFES

The downfall of five ribbons and the bombardment of Budweiser took place in Lordsburg Saturday, when the Arizona National Guard made an attack on the town immediately following the arrival of the train from Clifton and Morenci. The soldiers were cheerful and all along the lines ran the strains of "It's a Long Way to Lordsburg," etc. They were hale and hearty lads and remembered the folks back home, for whom they consumed some more "Bud." The populace of Lordsburg made no effort to retard the attack and by the time of the arrival of the 11:15 train for Fort Huachuca, where the annual encampment is being held, the town was captured. The soldiers turned back everything except the saloons, part of which they took perchance as far as Steins—and it is hoped no farther. Toward the end of the attack one of the officers lined up the militia and drilled it so as to prevent a "sneak" on the train. The siege fully demonstrated that the cantinines supplied by the A. N. G. are too small.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

Juan Maralis, Jose Roderiques and Juan Valdez, were given 90 days apiece by Justice C. W. Maralis, for having in their possession goods stolen from the Eagle Drug Mercantile Co.

Juan Munos was also handed a 90-day package for stealing a gold watch. Outside of all that, things have been quiet in the local hall of justice.
